HISTORY

In June of 1987, the North Dakota School for the Deaf established a summer camp program. It's goal is to give children with a hearing loss from throughout North Dakota an opportunity to participate in an assortment of activities with old friends and new.

Since 1987, NDSD Summer Camp continues to provide a wide range of educational and recreational experiences. Campers will participate in a variety of typical camping activities such as swimming, canoeing/kayaking, arts and crafts, horseback riding, climbing, lawn games and more!
